Former Hartsville deputy supervisor’s home suffers

Gene Garrison loses four dogs, six cats; teen injured in blaze

By ROB MONTANA

HARTVILLE — A 15-year-old was injured and a number of pets perished when former Hartsville Deputy Supervisor Gene Garrison’s home caught for Saturday morning.

Canisteo firefighters were called out at 8:19 a.m. Saturday for the report of a fire at 516 Henry Jenkins Road, Garrison’s 150-year-old home. Canisteo Fire Chief A.J. Martin said firefighters encountered a working fire when they arrived upon the scene, with fire on both the first and second floors.

“At this point it’s still under investigation,” he said Saturday night. “It started in the living room and it spread up to the second floor.”

Garrison’s 150-plus year-old home caught fire Saturday morning.

Turn to T7A

Lee Rosen recalls fleeing Europe during Holocaust

By BRIAN QUINN

WELLSVILLE — Lee Rosen has been through a lot in her almost 95 years.

Rosen, who is Jewish, lived in Europe during the anti-Semitism of Nazi power, been in Israel and later moved to the United States in the 1980s. She has also dealt with cancer in the last few years. She said spiritual beliefs have gotten her through it all.

Rosen — a resident of Canisteo-Greenwood — was visiting in Russia.

“Poland didn’t exist when she was born. She was sitting in the life saving,” Rosen said. “It was a combined science and religious organization with thousands of members across the country.

“Poland didn’t exist when she was born. She was sitting in the life saving,” Rosen said. “It was a combined science and religious organization with thousands of members across the country.

The institute has been a source of support for many people.

Friends say Rosen has a very sharp mind. She can speak several languages, including English, Polish, German, Hebrew, Russian, Yiddish and Ukrainian.

Rosen said she had her husband, Abraham, died about 25 years ago. She said he was fine, lived in Los Angeles, Calif., and her daughter, Judith, is deceased.

Rosen was a camper underground during the Holocaust, the persecution and murder of about 6 million Jews by the Nazi regime and its collaborators. The Nazis killed most of her family members at their home.

“They died in the house. The Germans killed them,” Rosen said. “My sister was not in the house. She was visiting in Russia.”

Gary Leach, a history teacher at Canisteo-Greenwood Central School and fellow IDMR member, said Rosen escaped unharmed.

By BOB CLARK

HORNET — Two Hornell firefighters honored for saving a heart attack victim.

Hornell firefighters Steve Foster and Dave Sexsmith were honored by the Southern Tier Regional Emergency Medical Service Council Friday morning.

“Poland didn’t exist when she was born. She was sitting in the life saving,” Rosen said. “It was a combined science and religious organization with thousands of members across the country.

The institute has been a source of support for many people.

Friends say Rosen has a very sharp mind. She can speak several languages, including English, Polish, German, Hebrew, Russian, Yiddish and Ukrainian.

Rosen said she had her husband, Abraham, died about 25 years ago. She said he was fine, lived in Los Angeles, Calif., and her daughter, Judith, is deceased.

Rosen was a camper underground during the Holocaust, the persecution and murder of about 6 million Jews by the Nazi regime and its collaborators. The Nazis killed most of her family members at their home.

“They died in the house. The Germans killed them,” Rosen said. “My sister was not in the house. She was visiting in Russia.”

Gary Leach, a history teacher at Canisteo-Greenwood Central School and fellow IDMR member, said Rosen escaped unharmed.

By BOB CLARK

HORNET — Two Hornell firefighters honored for saving a heart attack victim.

Hornell firefighters Steve Foster and Dave Sexsmith were honored by the Southern Tier Regional Emergency Medical Service Council Friday morning.

“Poland didn’t exist when she was born. She was sitting in the life saving,” Rosen said. “It was a combined science and religious organization with thousands of members across the country.

The institute has been a source of support for many people.

Friends say Rosen has a very sharp mind. She can speak several languages, including English, Polish, German, Hebrew, Russian, Yiddish and Ukrainian.

Rosen said she had her husband, Abraham, died about 25 years ago. She said he was fine, lived in Los Angeles, Calif., and her daughter, Judith, is deceased.

Rosen was a camper underground during the Holocaust, the persecution and murder of about 6 million Jews by the Nazi regime and its collaborators. The Nazis killed most of her family members at their home.

“They died in the house. The Germans killed them,” Rosen said. “My sister was not in the house. She was visiting in Russia.”

Gary Leach, a history teacher at Canisteo-Greenwood Central School and fellow IDMR member, said Rosen escaped unharmed.

By BOB CLARK

HORNET — Two Hornell firefighters honored for saving a heart attack victim.

Hornell firefighters Steve Foster and Dave Sexsmith were honored by the Southern Tier Regional Emergency Medical Service Council Friday morning.

“Poland didn’t exist when she was born. She was sitting in the life saving,” Rosen said. “It was a combined science and religious organization with thousands of members across the country.

The institute has been a source of support for many people.

Friends say Rosen has a very sharp mind. She can speak several languages, including English, Polish, German, Hebrew, Russian, Yiddish and Ukrainian.

Rosen said she had her husband, Abraham, died about 25 years ago. She said he was fine, lived in Los Angeles, Calif., and her daughter, Judith, is deceased.

Rosen was a camper underground during the Holocaust, the persecution and murder of about 6 million Jews by the Nazi regime and its collaborators. The Nazis killed most of her family members at their home.

“They died in the house. The Germans killed them,” Rosen said. “My sister was not in the house. She was visiting in Russia.”

Gary Leach, a history teacher at Canisteo-Greenwood Central School and fellow IDMR member, said Rosen escaped unharmed.

By BOB CLARK

HORNET — Two Hornell firefighters honored for saving a heart attack victim.

Hornell firefighters Steve Foster and Dave Sexsmith were honored by the Southern Tier Regional Emergency Medical Service Council Friday morning.

“Poland didn’t exist when she was born. She was sitting in the life saving,” Rosen said. “It was a combined science and religious organization with thousands of members across the country.

The institute has been a source of support for many people.

Friends say Rosen has a very sharp mind. She can speak several languages, including English, Polish, German, Hebrew, Russian, Yiddish and Ukrainian.

Rosen said she had her husband, Abraham, died about 25 years ago. She said he was fine, lived in Los Angeles, Calif., and her daughter, Judith, is deceased.

Rosen was a camper underground during the Holocaust, the persecution and murder of about 6 million Jews by the Nazi regime and its collaborators. The Nazis killed most of her family members at their home.

“They died in the house. The Germans killed them,” Rosen said. “My sister was not in the house. She was visiting in Russia.”

Gary Leach, a history teacher at Canisteo-Greenwood Central School and fellow IDMR member, said Rosen escaped unharmed.
As the sun was about to set, the British started to turn controlled Palestine at the late 1930s the British, who before Germany invaded, forced immigration quotas. Before the British started ships back as they time, had started to turn enforced immigration quotas.

Continued from 1A

to the center by a local

Garrison's Hometown

Welcome! We are excited for you to join our community. Please take a moment to introduce yourself and share your interests. This will help us get to know you better and ensure you receive the most relevant information.

To start, could you please provide your name and any details you would like us to know about yourself, such as your profession, hobbies, or any relevant business interests? Additionally, if you have any questions or concerns about your membership or the community, feel free to ask and we'll do our best to assist you.

Thank you for choosing to be part of our community. We look forward to getting to know you and having you as a valuable member.

Sincerely,
The Community Team

Questions or Comments? Email us at: info@communityplatform.com

Greeting Cards for All Occasions & All Seasons STOCK UP NOW!

Boyd's Bears, Precious Moments & Cherished Teddies INCLUDED

Gifts & Cards for DADS & GRADS

Mil's Hallmark & Collectibles

124 Main Street • Hornell